ORDER

10 On May 19, 2011 Vernon Louisville, Jr. ("Louisville") filed a
11 Notice of Ex Parte Application for Pre-Jail Time Credit with this
12 Court requesting "pre-jail time" credits. Louisville has not
13 elaborated in great detail about the facts underlying his request.
14 He asserts that because he was already in the custody of the U.S.
15 Marshal when he was transferred into State custody to serve time on 16 a parole violation that it was an error for him not to have been
17 given "pre-jail" time credit for time that he was held in State
18 custody.

20 The matter Louisville seeks to place before the Court,
21 however, is not within the authority of the Court to determine.
22 Under 18 U.S.C. § 3568, the responsibility for computing sentences
23 and awarding prisoners credit for jail time already served lies
24 with the Attorney General and the Bureau of Prisons. 18 U.S.C.
25 § 3568; United States v. Clayton, 588 F.2d 1288, 1292 (9th Cir.
26 1979); see also Brown v. Rison, 895 F.2d 533, 535 (9th Cir. 1990).
27 As this matter is not within the appropriate purview of the Court,
28 the Motion is DENIED.
